DETENTION ORDER

On October 24, 2019, defendant JOHN ROBERTS came before the court with counsel for an arraignment and a detention hearing on the motion of the government that defendant be detained until trial under the Bail Reform Act of 1986, 18 U.S.C. § 3142.

During these proceedings, defendant Roberts with the advice of counsel orally and voluntarily waived his right to a detention hearing knowing that a detention order would be issued and knowing that this detention order will be reconsidered upon motion of the defendant.

Thereupon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motion of the government for the pretrial detention of defendant JOHN ROBERTS is sustained. Defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service until further order. This detention order will be reconsidered upon motion of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant be confined in a corrections facility, separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant must be allowed reasonable opportunity for consultation with counsel.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that on order of a Court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the United States, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined must deliver defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
